During my stay at an American partner school the first of May at 12:00 o'clock during the sport lesson while playing football I broke my left foot because I fell unhappily because I tried not to run into another boy. Now I cannot really stand on my left foot and I cannot walk at all. The sports teacher called the school doctor who gave me a bandage. Then he sent me directly to the next hospital where they put my foot in a plaster. I didn't have to pay for the hospital but I had to pay for the taxi from the hospital back to the partner school.
