Background noises: Cafeteria

Hi, Jenny, have you seen the menu for today's lunch?

Yes, I have. There is some spaghetti, I don't know, some rice thing that doesn't look really nice. I just got a pretzel.

Aha, alright, ok. Is that what you are having?

Yes, I'm not that hungry today. I had a big breakfast. My mum made it for me.

Oh really, what did you have for breakfast?

I had some eggs and some salad with it, which sounds weird, but it's really nice for me. When I have a test in the morning it makes me feel energized.

Really? That sounds really quite strange.

Yes, it does.

But did you have a good test then, I suppose?

Yes, it was really good.

So just one pretzel for you, then. Ok fine.

Yes.

And what are you going to eat this evening?

I don't know. I'll probably have to help. My brother never helps my mum when she cooks. So I'll probably have to help.

And what are you going to make?

Something vegetarian. Probably some spaghetti with a sauce. I don't know. Probably salad as well again.

You don't eat meat at all?

No, my brother convinced me a while ago. And it's been, yes, it's been ok.

And what do you think of the vegetarian food they have here on offer?

I don't know. They always try to be really healthy. But I don't think it tastes that well. Yes.

And there's also a lot of salt in it and that's not that healthy.

Yes, right, ehm, I'll have a plate of spaghetti, please.
