Mother: Ben, can you come down here and fold this laundry, please?

Ben: Mom, I'm going out. It's a Friday night and I have friends waiting for me.

Mother: But I asked you to fold this laundry this afternoon.

Ben: But they're ... they're waiting for me, Mom.

Mother: Well, where you going?

Ben: I'm going to ... to Kyle's house.

Mother: Kyle's house! But his parents are away this weekend.

Ben: Yeah, but his ... his older brother is around and he's ... very responsible.

Mother: His older brother is only two years older than you.

Ben: Yeah, but he's been to college, he ... he's lived on his own before, he's ... he's just ... he's a very responsible guy.

Mother: What about what happened last summer when Kyle's parents went away and the police had to come because there was too much noise?

Ben: Mom, that was just once, you know ... it ... it doesn't happen every time. You know we've been there many times since then.

Mother: Well, you can go if you're home by eleven but you have to fold this laundry first.

Ben: But Mom, my curfew is one.

Mother: Well, I don't feel comfortable with you being there without parental supervision.

Ben: Well ... fine, how about twelve?

Mother: Twelve ... well, twelve ... are you taking the car?

Ben: Eh ... yeah, I was going to, I'm picking some friends up on the way.

Mother: Well, twelve is ok, but act responsible, be safe.

Ben: Are you gonna be waiting up for me?

Mother: No, you wake me up when you come in.

Ben: Ok, I guess ... I guess I can do this. Thanks, Mom.

Mother: Ok.
